Dear Illustrator,

Thank you for your interest in submitting an illustration for our native plant coloring book! We are very excited to work with you, and to see your beautiful artwork! This project directly supports the native plant society and the work they do within the community.

A reminder of the parameters for submission:

- Must be a native plant to New Mexico
- Include the common and scientific name in submission
- Illustrations must be outlined in pen so that they are dark enough to digitize, or you may submit your own digital version
- Plants should be drawn botanically correct
- Feel free to sign, or include your name if you desire, as well as any artist contact info (email, website, social media, etc.)
- Illustrations should be outlines with little to no shading
- Drawn to dimensions of 8 ½" x 11"

To ensure that we have your permission to use your illustration(s), we are requesting that you read this form and sign below. Thank you again.

I _____ (Illustrator/Guardian Name) authorize The Native Plant Society of New Mexico to publish the submitted illustration(s) for use in The Native Plant Society of New Mexico's print, and online coloring book. I agree that The Native Plant Society may use such illustrations with my name attached should I request this information, otherwise it will be at the discretion of the organization. In addition, I understand that once my illustration is posted on The Native Plant Society of New Mexico's website and/or social media sites, the image can be downloaded by any computer user. Therefore, I hereby release and hold harmless from any claims The Native Plant Society of New Mexico, its employees, and any third parties involved in the creation or publication of these materials. I understand that any funds garnered by this coloring book will either go directly back into printing costs of the book, or directly to the Native Plant Society's outreach Campaign. I acknowledge that my participation associated with the taking or publication of these illustrations or participation in The Native Plant Society Coloring Book or other publications is voluntary.
