

Thank you Native Plant
Society of New Mexico

Plant World delivered the native plants the second week of April 2026.

They called themselves the Mud Warriors!

Great kids
doing great,
collaborative planting in the garden!

Native plants find a great home on April 21, 2026, where students can learn about their vital importance and enjoy their beauty for generations.